SNAP SHOTS

THE MATCHUP Minnesota Duluth will appear in its sixth straight NCHC Frozen Faceoff this weekend in St. Paul, Minn. The No. 8 Bulldogs will meet the No. 3 Denver Pioneers for the fifth time this season. UMD and DU have split their four previous meetings this year with each team earning a road victory. Denver enters the weekend as the top seed in the NCHC tournament, while UMD holds the No. 5 seed in the bracket.

LAST TIME OUT The Bulldogs recorded their first NCHC sweep of the season this past weekend in St. Cloud. UMD rolled off 5-2 and 4-3 OT victories to sweep the Huskies and earn a spot in the conference semifinals. In overtime in game two, senior captain Noah Cates buried his second goal of the night and fifth point of the weekend to send UMD to the next round. The Pioneers easily took care of eighth seeded Miami this past weekend. 5-2 and 5-1 wins helped the Pioneers to back-to-back sweeps and a spot in the NCHC Frozen Faceoff.

CAPTAIN MY CAPTAIN During UMD's NCHC quarterfinal series at St. Cloud, senior captain Noah Cates notched three goals and two assists in two games, including the overtime winner on Saturday night. Cates currently sits with 99 career collegiate points, and would become the 60th Bulldog in program history to hit 100 points in a career. At the moment, Cates is tied for fourth on the team in points with 24 on the season.

evening, 5th-year senior Koby Bender notched his first career hat trick. Bender scored three straight second period goals to record the natural hat trick and help UMD to a game one win. It was Minnesota Duluth's first hatty since Nick Swaney scored three against St. Cloud on Feb. 27, 2021. It was also UMD's first post season hat trick since MacGregor Sharp on March 21, 2009.

BACK-TO-BACK With their win on Saturday night over St. Cloud, the Bulldogs captured back-to-back wins for just the sixth time this season. Prior to this past weekend, UMD hadn't taken back-to-back wins since their sweep of Alaska Fairbanks in late November.

COMEBACK KIDS UMD's 4-3 victory on Saturday evening was just the second time all season that the Bulldogs were able to win a game when trailing entering the third period. Minnesota Duluth is now 2-11-1 when they head to the third period with a deficit.

BOBBY ON THE BRINK Denver junior forward Bobby Brink currently leads the nation in points with 55 points in 36 games this season. Brink also leads the NCAA in assists with 41 helpers. With just the conference tournament and NCAA tournament left to play, Brink sits seven points ahead of both Nathan Smith and Julian Napravnik from Minnesota State. Brink could be on the brink of winning the 2022 Hobey Baker Award.

OFFENSE VS. DEFENSE Denver enters the weekend with the best offense in both the NCHC and the NCAA. The Pioneers are averaging 4.50 goals per game. On the flip side, UMD sits in second in the conference and 15th in the nation in goals against. The Bulldogs are giving up just 2.37 goals per game as a team.

LINES IN A BLENDER UMD entered last weekend seventh in the NCHC and 42nd in the nation in scoring offense with 2.50 goals per game. Head Coach Scott Sandelin decided to move Noah Cates down to the second line to play with Jesse Jacques and Koby Bender, while Kobe Roth moved up to play with Casey Gilling and Tanner Laderoute. The changes worked as UMD posted five and four goal games this past weekend in St. Cloud.

J.O.B. STEPS UP UMD's third line of Dominic James, Blake Biondi, and Quinn Olson all provided depth scoring during UMD's sweep of St. Cloud State. In game one, James and Olson each tallied an assist on Biondi's second period goal. In game two, Biondi notched the primary assist on James's third period game-tying goal. The JOB line has remained together all season long for Head Coach Scott Sandelin.

OUR LAST TRIP TO ST. PAUL Because of COVID-19, the NCHC Frozen Faceoff has not taken place in St. Paul since March of 2019. During the 2019 Frozen Faceoff, UMD defeated Denver 3-0 in the semifinals, before securing a 3-2 overtime win over St. Cloud in the conference championship game. During the championship game, both Jesse Jacques and Tanner Laderoute noted

PP STAYS HOT UMD entered last weekend with the seventh best power-play in the NCHC and 38th best power-play in the nation. However, this past weekend against St. Cloud, UMD noted three power-play markers in just six attempts, including two during Saturday night's win. Minnesota Duluth's man-advantage goals also came against the NCHC's top penalty-killing unit in SCSU.

power-play unit, which is clicking at 25.1%. Additionally, Denver sophomore forward Carter Savoie ranks third in the NCAA in power-play goals with 11 on the season. When these two teams met back in mid-February, UMD held the Pioneers to just one power-play goal in nine chances. This past weekend against Miami, Denver notched four power-play goals during their two game series.

CLINCHING AN NCAA BID UMD is looking to clinch a spot in the NCAA Tournament for the seventh straight season. Following their sweep of St. Cloud State, Minnesota Duluth has moved up to ninth in the PairWise Rankings. Denver currently sits in third in the PairWise heading into the Frozen Faceoff weekend.

HEAD COACH SCOTT SANDELIN

RECORDS

A two-time USCHO.com National Coach of the Year, Scott Sandelin returns for his 22nd season behind the UMD bench riding a wave of success with two NCAA Championships to his name over the past three seasons.

Besides capturing the school's first three NCAA championships (2011, 2018, and 2019), his Bulldogs have won 21 or more games in nine of the last 12 seasons while finishing below the .500 mark just one time over that stretch. Overall, they've advanced to ten NCAA tournaments (2004, 2009, 2011-12, 2015-21), including the "last six" in a row (a program record), six NCAA Frozen Fours (2004, 2011, 2017-2021) and four NCHC Frozen Faceoff tournaments (2016-19, winning the 2019 and 2017 events).

Before UMD parted ways with the WCHA following the 2012-13 season, Sandelin had directed his troops to berths in seven of 11 Final Five playoff events. A 7-time Spencer Penrose Award honoree as the American Hockey Coaches Association NCAA I Coach of the Year (winner in 2003-04, runnerup in 2010-11 and finalist the last five winters), Sandelin has also helped produce a trio of Hobey Baker Memorial Award winners (Scott Perunovich in 2019-20, Jack Connolly in 2011-12 and Junior Lessard in 2003-04), ten NCAA All-Americans and 25 All-NCHC/WCHA honorees. In addition, he has seen 25 of his UMD pupils go on to do time in the National Hockey League and two take part in the Winter Olympics (Justin Faulk for Team USA in 2014 and Mason Raymond for Team Canada in 2018). In the spring of 2018-19, UMD became just the third team in the past 47 years to win back-to-back NCAA national men's hockey titles, doing so by throttling the University of Massachusetts 3-0 in the championship bout. That same winter, UMD rolled up 29 overall victories – the second most in program history – and concluded their 75th year of intercollegiate competition riding the nation's longest winning streak at eight games. The Bulldogs also captured their second NCHC Frozen championship in three years and posted a Top Two finish in the league's regular season standings for the second time in three seasons as well. Three years ago, Sandelin and the Bulldogs rolled up a 28-7-7 overall record (for a .750 winning percentage – the second highest figure in club history) and spent a school-record 11 weeks occupying the No. 1 spot in the USCHO.com poll. They also went unbeaten in 19 of their final 21 games with one of those setbacks coming to Denver (3-2) in the NCAA national title bout.

During the course of the 2011-12 season, the Bulldogs set a team record by going unbeaten in 17 straight games and were ranked first in both major weekly polls (USCHO.com and USA Today/USA Hockey Magazine) for a program-best nine consecutive weeks. In March 2009, UMD became the first play-in game participant to ever claim the Final Five title and, later that spring, strung together a school-record six-game postseason winning streak before it fell to Miami University 2-1 in the NCAA West Regional final. In 2003-04, Sandelin, 53, turned UMD into a NCAA Frozen Four participant for the first time in nearly a generation, marshaling his troops to their most victories (they were 28-13-4 overall) and highest WCHA finish (second place on a 19-7-2 mark) since 1992-93. For his efforts, the Hibbing, Minn., native was chosen the WCHA Coach of the Year as well as the national coach of the year by both insidecollegiatehockey.com and USCHO.com. In 2002-03, Sandelin's charges went 22-15-5 overall and captured fifth place in the WCHA with a 14-10-4 mark while experiencing the greatest one-season turnaround of any league member that winter. One year earlier, he guided UMD to a 13-24-1 record in all games – nearly doubling the number of victories from the previous season (7-28-4).

Sandelin officially signed on with the Bulldogs on March 31, 2000 following six years of assistant coaching deployment at North Dakota (which won two NCAA titles during his tenure). Prior to that, Sandelin spent the 1993-94 season head coaching the Junior Elite Hockey League's FargoMoorhead Junior Kings after working in that same capacity (and doubling as general manager) the previous winter with the Fargo-Moorhead Express of the American Hockey Association. He capped off his four-year playing career at North Dakota in 1985-86 by being named one of 10 finalists for the Hobey Baker Memorial Award. An All-American second team selection and All-WCHA first team pick as a senior, Sandelin went on to play professionally for seven years, which included National Hockey League stints with the Montreal Canadiens (1986-88), Philadelphia Flyers (1990-91) and Minnesota North Stars (1991-92). Sandelin, one of just six active NCAA coaches to do time in the NHL, was the Montreal Canadiens' second-round pick in the 1982 NHL draft (40th choice overall).

UMD head coach Scott Sandelin served as the head coach of the U.S. Junior National Team at the 2020 International Ice Hockey Federation World Junior Championship Dec. 26, 2019 - Jan. 5, 2020. Sandelin has been a part of three previous U.S. National Junior Team coaching staffs, including as head coach in 2005 and as an assistant coach in both 2012 and for 2018-19's silver medalwinning club.
